

Eclipse AVR Environment Setup

1-Downloading Eclipse IDE:

X86 OS:

<https://www.eclipse.org/downloads/download.php?file=/technology/epp/downloads/release/mars/2/eclipse-cpp-mars-2-win32.zip>

X64 OS:

https://www.eclipse.org/downloads/download.php?file=/technology/epp/downloads/release/mars/2/eclipse-cpp-mars-2-win32-x86\_64.zip

2-Downloading & Install JRE:

X86 OS:

<https://download.oracle.com/otn/java/jdk/8u271-b09/61ae65e088624f5aaa0b1d2d801acb16/jre-8u271-windows-i586.exe>

X64 OS:

<https://download.oracle.com/otn/java/jdk/8u271-b09/61ae65e088624f5aaa0b1d2d801acb16/jre-8u271-windows-x64.exe>

3-Install GCC Plugin For Eclipse:

In eclipse Help -> Install New Software.

Paste URL: <http://avr-eclipse.sourceforge.net/updatesite>

Press Add...

Choose Name ex AVR_GCC

4-Download & Install WinAVR Libraries:

<https://sourceforge.net/projects/winavr/files/latest/download>

5-Setup USB asp :

Right click project -> properties -> AVR -> AVR dude.
Install USB asp driver.